[May 25, 2022]

- Johnny and Gary Stillman make it to the police station to gear up and call for backup.
- Stillman asks him to keep a look out for the door while he gets his proper loadout and his K-9 Riley.
- While Johnny looks around the station to see if he can use something to defend himself while he’s gone. He found a switchblade inside one of the offices where they keep them.
- Johnny takes the switchblade as his primary weapon
- Stillman came back to tell him that the radio is out in this area
- Both of them get ambushed along the way by one of the parasitic freaks as they find the back door of the police station.
- Stillman tells him that he’ll have to go to the radio tower that’s located in the New York forest area.
- Johnny finds Palma hiding in the train station (specifically, at the room where they serve some metro cards)
